

Centerville Police Department

Now accepting applications for the position of Police Officer

- Closing Date: A position for police officer is now open, the department will begin reviewing applications after February 1, 2018. The position may close at any time after this date. Applications will continue to be accepted until position is filled.
- Starting Salary: Competitive pay structure, wages are negotiable depending on qualifications and experience, credit will be given for related full time law enforcement experience. Hiring incentive available in some cases
- Benefits: Medical, Dental Insurance, HSA option, Life/ADD & Long Term Disability Insurance – Utah State Public Safety Retirement – Participation in 401K/457/Roth IRA – 12 days paid vacation – 12 days paid holiday – 40 hours all purpose and 56 hours long term sick leave – Car per man program available with off duty use of car within 25 driving miles of Parrish Lane – Flexible Spending Account - $200 fitness gym member reimbursement - $1500 per calendar year tuition benefit – Employee incentive program – Great people to work with!
- Summary: Performs law enforcement duties related to enforcing laws, maintaining peace, and protecting life and property. Works under general supervision of a patrol sergeant, lieutenant and Chief. Patrols areas of Centerville City, responds to calls for service, controls traffic, writes reports, transports prisoners, represents a positive image to the public at all times, serves legal notices, summons, and warrants as required, attends wide variety of training to include proficiency in firearms and driving tactics. Will submit to a psychological evaluation and drug test.

Minimum Requirements: Must be 21 years old, no disqualifying criminal records, maintain certifications, graduate from high school, P.O.S.T. Certified / or the ability to obtain Utah POST Basic Certificate and be able to pass the URMMA Physical Fitness Standards Test, have a current valid Utah driver's license, and demonstrate good moral character, free of emotional, physical, mental conditions that might adversely affect the performance of duty as a police officer.

Applications can be obtained at 250 North Main Street, Centerville, during business hours or downloaded at www.centervilleut.net. Prior to employment, all applicants will have their background thoroughly checked and must pass a drug and alcohol test. Centerville City is an EOE.