EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION STUDY

Jacob Smith, Management Services Director, presented employee compensation study spreadsheets updated with population data and a midpoint at the 60th percentile. The Council discussed the city population range to use as a filter. Mike Swallow, the consultant contracted to conduct the compensation study, explained that the job value assigned to each position is based on the job description to ensure comparable data. Mr. Smith pointed out that for non-management positions the data shows Centerville to be generally in alignment with the market.

Councilman McEwan emphasized the need to consider the overall operational budget of the city relative to neighbors, and the fact that the city is in maintenance mode with not a lot of buildable area. Centerville has a population of approximately 18,000. The Council agreed to filter the comparative data with a population range of 10,000-30,000, and set a City Manager pay range of $103,487-$149,022, with a midpoint of $124,185.

Councilwoman Fillmore suggested considering the remaining management positions as part of the upcoming budget process. Councilwoman Ivie said she would rather add non-management personnel to ease the existing need for overtime than increase the pay of upper management.

Councilman McEwan made a motion to amend the Compensation Plan with a City Manager pay range of $103,287-$149,022, and a midpoint of $124,185. Councilman Ince seconded the motion, which passed by unanimous vote (5-0). Staff was directed to prepare recommended pay ranges for the remaining positions with the same assumptions, as well as a spreadsheet showing the cost of implementation. The Council scheduled a work session on February 19, 2019 to continue the discussion. Mr. Smith and Mr. Swallow left the meeting at 7:20 p.m.
CITY MANAGER RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Ms. Romney, the Mayor, and the Council discussed the interview process for the City Manager position scheduled to take place on February 7th and 8th. Council members requested that the current Centerville City Manager and a city manager from a neighboring city participate in the interview process in an advisory capacity. The Council received packets containing resumes of the candidates who will be interviewed.

ADJOURNMENT

At 7:41 p.m., Councilwoman Fillmore made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Councilman Ince seconded the motion, which passed by unanimous vote (5-0).
