1 Cassie Younger, Assistant Planner, explained William R. Smith was the original owner of
2 the Founders Park property, and he donated it to the City with the stipulation it would be a park.
3 Many years ago, a Smith descendant had the name changed to Founders Park, and the Smith family
4 descendants recently petitioned the City Council to change the name back to the William R. Smith
5 Park. The City Council has approved this request.

6
7 The Walking Tour will be on September 9th at 10:00 a.m. at the well at the LDS Church on 8 200 East and 200 South. The owner of the B. H. Roberts home contacted Cassie Younger, and told
9 her the exterior of her home can be viewed. The Commission viewed the map of the Deuel Creek
10 Historic District to determine the homes that will be viewed. The tour will end at the William R.
11 Smith Park where a picnic lunch will be served, and a presentation will be held for Ron Randall.
12 Jeanne Randall will interview Mr. Randall to gather information from him for the presentation. If 13 there is a large group, they will be divided into two groups with Vivian Talbot and Chair Plummer
14 as tour guides.

15
16 Cassie Younger will print a map of the homes on the tour for Commission members, along 17 with a reminder by email the first week of September. An invitation for the tour will be sent to
